Meals to go information sheet

Thank you for ordering your Brett Street Café prepared takeaway meal.

Meal information:

The meals are freshly prepared and cooked in the Brett Street CAFÉ kitchen, supporting local food suppliers and retailers. The meals are cooked fresh and are available to pre-order and pick up Tuesday to Friday 11.30am to 1pm. Each meal includes a balanced portion of protein, carbohydrates and vegetables. Gluten free options available.

The menu will change regularly to meet our customers' requirements.

Food safety – your safety:

The meals are prepared following FSANZ Australia food safety standards with a focus on food safety, good hygiene practices and correct food storage.

The meals are not suitable to be frozen and must be consumed by the use by date on the container. Please keep your meal refrigerated until you are ready to consume.

Please bring a chiller bag and ice brick to collect your meals.

Food allergies:

The meals are not suitable for customers with specific dietary requirements, please discuss any concerns you may have with your individual meal plan.

Please call (07) 5569 3131 or send an email to brettstreetcafe@tweed.nsw.gov.au.

Note: The meals may contain traces of egg/dairy/nuts and other food allergens.

Reheating instructions:

The meals are served in microwave safe containers, it is important to heat the meal to 60 degrees for your safety. The meals MUST not be reheated for a second time, please discuss with the Café team if you require additional information regarding the heating of your meal.
