

A beautiful place to rest

Tweed cemeteries, cremations and funeral options

Burial sites

Ash memorials

Memorial gardens

Your best option for funeral services

Everything you need in one beautiful place

Tweed Shire Council offers a full list of high-quality and cost-effective services, whether you are planning ahead for your own funeral or farewelling a loved one.

Options include:

Cremation - A modern crematorium is located at Tweed Valley Cemetery. All cremations are arranged through a funeral director, who can assist with your interment options.

Burial - A variety of picturesque burial sites are available at the Tweed Valley, Murwillumbah Lawn and Tweed Heads Lawn cemeteries. Future plans include eco-burials.

Permanent and picturesque locations for ashes:

- tranquil memorial lawns and gardens
- memorial walks (rainforest, creek, cordyline)
- tree memorials (for individuals and families)
- memorial walls and 'books'

Plaques and urns - are available through our accredited suppliers.

Chapel and wake services - an historic, non-denominational chapel at Tweed Valley Cemetery is perfect for funeral services, wakes and other gatherings of family and friends. It offers seating for up to 90 people, audio-visual equipment, kitchen and catering facilities.

Family history searches - help you find out more about your family members interred at our cemeteries.

A beautiful place to rest

Our cemeteries are situated in some of the Tweed's most beautiful locations, providing peaceful and respectful surrounds.

Burial plots and memorials to store ashes at the cemetery offer security and permanence for friends and family, giving them peace of mind that there will always be a special place to remember a loved one.

All these services can be provided in one location, offering a more relaxed and less stressful day for family and friends.

Tweed Shire Council cemeteries

Tweed Shire Council manages 11 cemeteries, ranging from the large regional facility, Tweed Valley Cemetery at Eviron, to small village cemeteries. See map above for locations.

Council actively operates the Tweed Valley Cemetery, Tweed Heads Lawn and General Cemetery and Murwillumbah Lawn and General Cemetery. The other eight sites are fully occupied and maintained by Council.

Access to cemeteries

Tweed Valley Cemetery

Access to the Tweed Valley Cemetery parking area is available from 7am to dusk. Pedestrian access to the cemetery is available at all times.

Other cemeteries

Access to the other cemeteries is available at all times.

Contact cemeteries

Web: www.tweed.nsw.gov.au/Cemeteries

Phone: (02) 6670 2435

Email: cemeteries@tweed.nsw.gov.au

Postal address: PO Box 816, Murwillumbah, NSW 2484

Main office: Tweed Valley Cemetery, Eviron 2484

Hours: 8.30am-12pm and 1pm to 4pm

Monday to Friday (except public holidays)

Ask your funeral director for more information about Council's cemetery services, providing certainty for the long term.

Tweed Heads Lawn and General Cemetery

Kirkwood Road, Tweed Heads

Tweed Heads Cemetery is centrally located off Kirkwood Road in Tweed Heads. The 5.5 hectares of hills and valleys, with their many trees, create a series of intimate spaces for privacy and reflection.

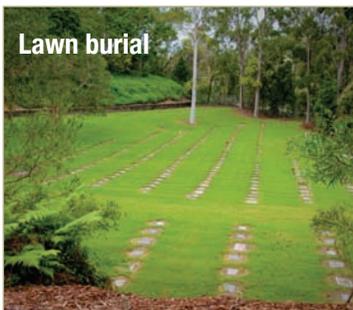

Tweed Heads Cemetery offers an expanded list of options for memorial and lawn burial sites in a bush setting.

Affordable ash memorial sites are being developed to service community demand in the Tweed Heads area. Contact the cemetery administrator to discuss your needs.

New lawn monument sites are available.

Monumental

Lawn burial

Tweed Valley Cemetery

Eviron Road, Eviron

Tweed Valley Cemetery is nestled in a peaceful valley setting, centrally located between Tweed Heads, Murwillumbah and the coast. It is the Tweed's main cemetery and includes a crematorium, a non-denominational chapel and beautifully landscaped grounds which range from formal gardens to lush rainforest settings.

A restored historic chapel, relocated from St Joseph's Primary School in Tweed Heads and dating back to 1917, provides an ideal non-denominational venue for services and functions. Memorial gardens and walks offer a wide variety of permanent locations for ash memorials.

Lawn burials sites extend up the cemetery's green hills, bounded by flowering shrubs. The Family Tree Memorial and Individual Tree Memorial sites are extremely popular.

Murwillumbah Lawn and General Cemetery

Tree Street, Murwillumbah

Murwillumbah Lawn Cemetery is set in a picturesque, tree-bounded hill site providing a secluded and restful sanctuary.

The Murwillumbah cemetery has two options for permanent ash locations and more alternatives are being developed.

A flower garden and granite wall memorials for ashes are located in the lawn cemetery. The general cemetery also has limited ash sites available in two memorial walls.

A limited number of new lawn burial sites have been created.

