

LIVING FOR THE FUTURE

HOME EXPO & community summit

Saturday, 16 November 2013
10.30am-2.30pm (DST)

TWEED HEADS CIVIC CENTRE
cnr Brett and Wharf St, Tweed Heads

community summit program

11.30am

Address by Philip Follent - expert in architecture and urban design

12.10pm

Panel 1: Sustainable Community Design

12.50pm

Panel 2: Sustainable Houses - new design and renovations

1.30pm

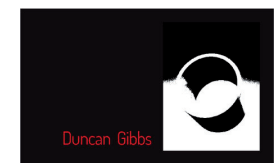

Panel 3: Sustainable living - water, waste, food/gardens, energy, transport

For more information or to join the discussion:

- visit www.tweed.nsw.gov.au/Sustainability/ or www.yoursaytweed.com.au
- phone Council's Sustainability Program Leader, Deb Firestone, on (02) 6670 2400

participating businesses

A one-stop-shop of trade stalls, expert presentations and community discussions

All the ideas and services home owners and renters need to:

- cut power and water bills
- make your home self-sufficient
- create a more liveable home
- create stronger communities

OTHER ATTRACTIONS

- activities for kids
- organic food
- locally grown coffee

great options on display

Visit displays for great advice from a range of experts in home and garden design, products and services:

- building design
- landscaping
- building products
- energy-efficient appliances
- solar power
- eco loans
- plumbers
- environmentally-friendly furniture
- pool pumps and supplies
- cleaning products
- affordable cabins
- and many more

Bring your plans and ideas, and connect with local suppliers to turn your concepts into reality.

community summit

Join discussions with community leaders about making homes and communities more sustainable. Guest speakers include:

Philip Follent
- one of Australia's leaders in architecture and urban design

Assistant Professor Ned Wales - Bond University Institute of Sustainable Development

Organic food producer and advisor Greg James

Award-winning architects Amy Degenhardt and Scott Carpenter

Energy efficiency expert Michael Qualmann

Kit home owner and renovator Richard Swinton

Landscape architect Dan Plummer